3.	Audit Scotland's Print Contract Update
	Management team noted the update on the print contract arrangements.
4.	Audit Procurement Strategy – Initial considerations
	Russell Frith introduced his paper outlining initial considerations on the Audit Procurement Strategy, which had been previously circulated.	RF	Jan 2010

	Following detailed discussion, it was agreed that Russell would prepare a paper to the Board, which would be circulated in advance to MT, recommending that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The option to extend contracts, as in the current appointment letters, be included in the next appointment round, but that the option should not be exercised • The AGS and the Accounts Commission continue with a common procurement strategy and single procurement exercise • No significant changes should be made to the current volume of appointments made to private firms and Audit Scotland appointments to maintain a healthy mixed market for public audit in Scotland. It was also agreed that the report should include a timeline of the key decisions that the Board, the AGS and the Accounts Commission would need to take. It was further agreed that the work to revise the code of audit practice needed to progress quickly and to ensure engagement with key stakeholders. The scope of the discussions around the code should be enlarged to include questions about what audit will look like, what it needs to deliver, what can be delivered in a climate of reducing resources. It was agreed that Russell's paper should also describe the Board's role in procurement in detail and in relation to the recently agreed Partnership Agreement between Audit Scotland, the Accounts Commission and the Auditor General.
5.	Audit Scotland & Audit Strategy Quality Framework
	Russell introduced the Audit Scotland and Audit Strategy Quality Framework reports, which had been previously circulated. It was agreed that Russell would revise the Audit Scotland Quality Framework to take into account: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • More detailed descriptions of the quality processes in place in each business group • A more direct link to the objective in the Corporate plan of becoming a centre of excellence for public Audit Scotland • A clearer description of the leadership of quality and link to the new competency framework for the leadership group. • An updated description of the links between the annual report on quality, the Accountable Officer's role and the statement on internal controls. 	RF	Jan 2010

	It was agreed that Russell would consult on and revise the Audit Strategy Quality Appraisal Framework in line with the consultation on the code of audit practice, and taking into account the links with the corporate plan objectives, and more clearly defining the assurance and challenge roles of the quality appraisal. It was agreed that Russell should present a project plan with detailed timeline to MT bringing together the actions required to progress items 4 and 5.
6.	Product Reading of 2007/08 Annual Audits
	Russell introduced the Product Reading of 2007/2008 Annual Audit Reports, which had been previously circulated. Following discussion, it was agreed that, alongside the work on the Code of Audit Practice and the procurement preparations, a small, short-life working group should review what the purpose of the annual audit report should be, to help auditors improve the consistency of approach, and also to help reconcile the sometimes conflicting demands of various codes and templates. The arrangements for the working group would be discussed at a future meeting.	All	Feb meeting
7.	Risk Management
	Russell introduced the Risk Management report, which had been previously circulated. The Group reviewed the risk register, risk ratings and mitigating actions and agreed several changes which Russell with implement before presenting the report to the next Audit Committee meeting.	RF	Jan2010
9.	AOB
9.1	Letter to Audit Scotland from SCPA
	Diane tabled a letter from the Convener of the SCPA's letter which is seeking Audit Scotland's views on the order-marking powers and the role of OCPAS in the appointment of Audit Scotland Board Members, in the Public Services Reform (Scotland) Bill. It was agreed that Russell would co-ordinate the response.	RF	Jan 2010
9.2	Climate Change (Scotland) Act – Public Bodies Duty
	Mr Black tabled a letter which he received from Mr John Ewing, Director of Public Service Reform which explains

	how the Scottish Government is taking forward work in relation to the public bodies climate change duty introduced by the Climate Change (Scotland) Act 2009. It was agreed that Barbara should represent Audit Scotland on the working group.
10.	Date of the Next Meeting

1.	Note of previous meeting	LEAD	DEADLINE
	The minutes of the previous meeting of 23 February 2010, which had been circulated, were agreed as an accurate record.
2.	Medium Term Financial Planning – Business Group Efficiency and Workforce Planning Report
	Bob introduced a discussion on Audit Scotland's medium-term financial planning, to set the context for discussion of each business group's scope for further efficiencies and workforce planning. Bob set the context of the urgent need to review and reduce the cost of audit and the need to prepare effectively for the tough times ahead. The strong message from the Audit Scotland Board was that audit has a vital role to play in supporting the public sector and that we must ensure that Audit Scotland is resourced to fulfil its function effectively, but that we also must respond to the pressures on clients and stakeholders and the pressure on public spending by reviewing and reducing the cost of audit. Lynn and Fiona introduced their papers from the Audit Services Group which documented the progress to date on achieving efficiencies in the delivery of audit, and the benefits that had been achieved from changing the skill and grade mix on audits. Fiona discussed the Audit Services Workforce plan and the assumptions that were being made within it. The impact of the electronic working papers package was also discussed. Lynn and Fiona highlighted the ratio of chargeable to non-chargeable work, and the need to review the resourcing of various corporate projects. This was agreed, and in particular, the resources devoted to the next stage of the Performance Development and Improvement Group were identified as potentially being able to reduce because of the excellent progress that had been made. Fraser McKinlay and David Pia introduced their paper on the scope for efficiencies and workforce planning issues for the	ALL	TBC

3.	Audit Procurement Strategy – Issues for Consideration
	Russell Frith introduced the Audit Procurement Strategy report, which had been previously circulated. There was clarification that the discussion was an information gathering rather than a decision taking one, and Russell set out the proposed procurement strategy. It was agreed that the Accounts Commission, the Auditor General and the Board would need more detailed information on the impact and consequences of changing the current split of work between Audit Scotland and the firms. Management Group discussed the purpose of panel presentations with firms in previous procurement rounds and the potential for using them in the forthcoming procurement exercise. Russell highlighted the number of providers across each sector and the potential for change, including in the Further Education Sector. It was agreed that Russell should provide further papers highlighting how price could be included as a feature of the tendering process. Management Group noted the issues involved in appointing auditors to clusters of public bodies and to planning partners.	RF	TBC
